Affordable PI insurance for the valuation industry

Can you say the same when it comes to your insurance?

All members of the Australian Valuers Institute must maintain a Professional Indemnity insurance policy that is compliant with the organisation's Insurance Standards.

That's where our role as AVI's endorsed insurance broker can be so beneficial to you. Arthur J. Gallagher is one of the world's leading insurance brokers, and we have many members of the AVI among our clients.

In particular, our Professional Indemnity (PI) insurance is specifically tailored for the needs of valuers. And, thanks to our negotiating power with major national and international insurers, we're able to offer outstanding cover at very competitive rates.

We offer a full advisory service and can tailor an insurance plan around your business's unique exposures. Just ask.
