

APPLICATION FOR CERTIFIED PRACTICING VALUER (CPV) CERTIFICATE

The Australian Valuers Institute has a commitment to the ongoing advancement of our members and the recognition of excellence in your field. With this in mind, we wish to ensure that your academic achievements along with your professional experience and competence are recognised. As such, we are introducing a further level of membership to existing associate and fellow membership that incorporates a title of CPV into your professional qualification.

Within the Institute, a CPV is recognised as a professional Valuer who is of good character and repute, who satisfies the educational requirements of the relevant state licensing authority and has the appropriate level of professional experience to meet the standards associated with this title. Member valuers seeking CPV accreditation and certificate must be a current practicing Valuer with a minimum of 3 years experience and or satisfy the AVI Boards standards for such accreditation.

To process your application, a one off fee of $35.00 for administration and processing is to be submitted with this application.

Documentary evidence with your application must include:

- Current CV;
- Details of academic qualifications;
- Copy of current valuation registration or regulation compliance in the State to which you practice ;
- 3 written references (by persons who are professional valuers and/or persons within a similar field. Your referees must be able to attest to your professional standing and confirm your work/career experience); and
- A minimum of 2 substantial valuations undertaken by the Valuer within the past 3 months.

Once received, your application will be considered by the AVI Board. Please complete the following forms and attach all relevant documentation.
